Fortress Monroe, Virginia, in full view of that great city, Chesapeake Bay, and James River, with every luxury of sea and land is obtainable, was opened to the public for the first time the past season, and having proved a successful and thrilling experience, has been re-opened for the season of 1877, and has been determined to offer inducements of an ordinary character, in the shape of

GRAND GIFT CONCERT.

by means of which they hope to be able to execute their public-spirited and laudable undertaking of making

VUE DE L'EAU the Grand Seaside Resort of the South.

As inducements to the public where to purchase tickets, they propose to present

NORFOLK OPERA HOUSE,

On Thursday Evening, Feb. 20, '73,

And will in itself be a full consideration for the tickets, and a full admission mission Tickets.

The distribution of Gifts will take place immediately after the concert, on the stage of the Opera House, and in full view of the audience, under the immediate supervision of the President and Directors of the Vue de l'EAU COMPANY, and the following distinguished gentlemen, who have kindly consented to be present and see that the gifts are properly distributed as advertised:

Hon John R. Ludlow, Mayor of Norfolk,

Hon A. S. Watts, Mayor of Portsmouth,

Col. Walter H. Taylor, of Norfolk,

Hon John B. Whitehead, Ex-Mayor of Norfolk,

James G. Holladay, Esq., of Portsmouth,

The Board of Directors is composed of the following gentlemen, whose well known character for integrity, honesty, and public enterprise are so well known as to guarantee success, and a fair and impartial distribution of the gifts:

Major George W. Grace, President Bank of Portsmouth,

Col. William Lamb, President First National Bank, Norfolk,

Gen. V. D. Grover, General Agent Boston Steamship Company,

Captain National Burruss, Son & Co., Washington Road, Esq., of Petersburg & Reed Merchants,

Col. G. G. G. G., Superintendent Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad,

Robert J. Neely, Esq., of R. J. & W. Neely & Co.,

Marshall Parks, Esq., President Albemarle & Chesapeake Canal Company,

J. C. Lindsey, Esq., Real Estate Broker, William H. White, Esq., Attorney at Law, Norfolk.

The distribution will be by blindfolded persons or children, from two wheels, one of which will contain gifts on printed slips sealed in envelopes of the same size, the other will contain tags, with numbers on them corresponding with all the tickets sold; after the contents of both wheels are drawn, the person who will take a number therefrom, and then the person at the second wheel will take a gift therefrom, and the gift thus taken will belong to the number drawn immediately before it, this process will continue until the numbers and gifts being publicly announced—until the whole four hundred and one gifts are distributed.
Thus the public will readily see there can be no fraud, collusion, or knowledge of what gift any number will get.

Should the tickets be not all sold when the concert comes off, the presents will be distributed in proportion to the number sold.

It is hoped the public will promptly respond to this effort to establish upon a firm basis a delightful resort during the heated months.

TICKETS ONLY $5 EACH.

Currency Gifts will be paid in cash at our banking House in the city of Norfolk, on presentation of the tickets entitled thereto, without discount.

For further particulars and for tickets, apply to the undersigned, who have undertaken the exclusive financial management of this scheme, and who alone are authorized to appoint agents for the sale of tickets.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

See the advertisement of house to let.

Governor Caldwell will return to the city this morning.

The Supreme Court of the State will meet on the 6th of January.

Weather moderating—snow melting —streets sloppy—and all in a mess.

The Skiff & Gaylord troupe didn't come to Raleigh—and well enough they didn't.

Wood ashes wanted—Mr. C. B. Fairchild wants 100 bushels. See notice-elsewhere.

We learn that a number of gentlemen of this city will make New Year's calls Wednesday.

D. A. Jenkins, Public Treasurer, has just returned to the city from a visit to his home in Gaston County.

Though the day was cold all of the churches were well attended on Sunday.
A good many went in sleighs.

The Pecan tree in Dr. R. B. Haywood's lot is nearly three feet in circumference, and is bearing plentifully.

No cases were up in the Police Court yesterday morning, and nothing came before the various magistrates save a few civil cases.

The Yale school of journalism numbers sixty-five members, one or two of whom may possibly edit a weekly paper some day.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of State National Bank will be held on the second Tuesday in January. See notice elsewhere.

We are continually learning complaints made by persons travelling on the Fayetteville road of the unsafe condition of the bridge over Walnut Creek. The County Commissioners should look to this.

The "jingle" of the sleigh bells still salute the ears of our citizens. We would have said the "merry jingle" but conscience intervened. We never heard a more lonesome sound than that of a cow bell.

An exchange says that a young milliner of this city recently received information of the death of a maiden aunt in Chicago, who leaves her $25, 000. Go from home to hear the news!

Who is she?

The State officers elect will qualify to-morrow and enter upon the discharge of the duties of their several offices.
Chief Justice Pearson will officiate in the swearing in. He is expected to arrive in the city this morning.

A Convocation of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, Royal Arch Masons, will be held at the Masonic Hall this evening for the transaction of business and installation of officers. The members are earnestly requested to be prompt in meeting at 7 o'clock.

We read a number of letters at the North Carolina Land office on yesterday from parties in Europe and Canada who wish to settle in this State. We also saw letters from parties in New York who wish to purchase mineral property in this and adjoining counties.

There are four homicide cases to be tried before the January term of the Superior Court of this county. A larger number, we are informed, than were ever presented at any one term in this county.

At this term the three colored men who broke into the store of Mr. Hicks and were cruelly bent him will be tried for burglary, which is also a capital offence.

The terrible spell of weather last week prevented the Masons of this city from celebrating St. John's Day as they had intended. Mr. R. H. Bradley, Worshipful Master of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, gave a handsome entertainment at his residence to the officers of Wm. G. Hill and Hiram Lodges, which was heartily enjoyed by those present. Mr. B. is an only a bright Mason but also an efficient officer.

PETERSBURG.—Petersburg on the

-Appomattox, really a North Carolina town, though situated in Virginia is so believe, about the third city in that State in a commercial point of view.

If she is not she ought to be. Petersburg is called the Cockade city, why or wherefore we were never able to learn.
Unlike the enterprising little city of Charlotte, in Western Carolina, whose citizens will meet you at the depot to inform you that within the hallowed precincts of said city originated the memorable Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence and even elbow you to the very spot where history says Old Declaration stood, the Cockade never mention the fact of their being said and seem to entirely disregard this important item in the history of their city.

In Petersburg-on-the Appomattox, the "Cockade City" of the "Old Dominion," we spent our Christmas holidays, despite the most severe spell of cold weather known in that locality for many years. We enjoyed it hugely—while at our dinner.

When not engaged in the above named pleasant and agreeable pastime, we "sloshed" around the city to see the sights and, as near as possible, compare notes with the doings of our own native heath.

Petersburg is different from Raleigh —very different. Raleigh has policemen. We saw one in Petersburg—at the theatre, but more of him hereafter.
Drunken negroes bang at closed doors on Sycamore street, bawl loud and sing obscene songs—nobody objects.

It is the peculiar delight of all the boys (some 15 years old), to blow tin horns on Christmas eve and Christmas day. We enjoyed this sport because they seemed to enjoy it, but we did not join in the blow.

As it was Christmas and, a seven inch snow on the ground, business was almost entirely suspended and the city was a dead, gloomy appearance after the second day.

Petersburg has a Theatre, called the Academy of Music. It is comparatively new and doubtless built at considerable expense, but badly constructed and inconveniently arranged.

Skiff & Gaylord's minstrels, a troupe of renown, was billed at the Academy of Music for Friday night. We went —of course. We reached the hall just before the rising of the curtain, found a good audience in numbers, but few ladies—yet there were ladies. Boys in the gallery (some over 45 years old) were boisterous. Gentlemen sit in the dress circle with their hats on, their feet in the aisle, talked loud, whistled and sung songs. Before the performance commenced the boys (some over 45 years old) became exceedingly boisterous and unruly. A policeman, (the first we had seen) came forward in the aisle and made a speech. He reminded the audience that ladies were present, and for their sake, and as an especial favor to himself, he would ask them to be quiet. The speech was received with tremendous applause, and the noise, whistling, song singing, and disorder became general, when several of the ladies left the hall.

The concert was poor, the room was cold, and we must say we were very unfavorably impressed with the Petersburg Academy of Music on the whole.

As we have something else to write up besides Petersburg, we will continue this article in our next, when we propose to give the bright side of Petersburg-on-the Appomattox, the "Cockade City" of the "Old Dominion."

SMALL POX IN FRANKLIN COUNTY.—

It will be remembered that a day or two ago, on the faith of a statement made by a correspondent, we denied the truth of the report of this dreadful disease being near Louisville. We are sorry to state now that the denial should not have been made. We learn from one who knows whereof he speaks, that near Clinton's mills, 8 miles of Louisville, 11 in the family of Mr. Ruben Rogers are down with the disease, and that there are cases of it at Vincent Cook's, Andrew Jackson's, Wilson Bolton's and Dawson Jones', all in this neighborhood. It is said that the disease was carried there by a Mr. John Darrell of Fayette county, Tennessee, who came there to carry some families to that State. Mr. Darrell stopped at Mr. Rogers', and shortly afterwards broke out with the disease and soon died. Just before this unfortunate man was taken down, Mr. Rogers gave a corn-shucking, and all who are now victims attended it. We suppose they contracted the malady then by coming in contact with him.

TO BE HANGED.—Our readers will doubtless remember an account of the escape of the murderer Baylis Henderson from the Macon county jail, and his recapture afterwards; also the order for a court of Oyer and Terminer by Gov. Caldwell for his trial.

In accordance therewith Judge Henry appointed Monday the 15th of Dec. for the commencement of the trial.
Upon the application of counsel the case was removed to the county of Jackson, and the trial commenced in said county on Monday the 22d inst. Judge Henry presiding. After much difficulty a jury was obtained and the trial proceeded with. Upon a verdict of guilty the Judge sentenced the prisoner to be hanged on the 24th day of January at Webster, the county seat of Jackson.
All the facts in the case, with the particulars of the murder, have been heretofore published in the NEWS.

NATIONAL HOTEL.—This well known and deservedly popular Hotel will be re-opened on the 1st prox., for the accommodation of the public under the auspices of F. J. Haywood, M. D., and W. H. Bagley, Esq. The style and management of the firm will be W. H. Bagley & Co. As we before announced A. J.

Partin, Esq., former Clerk in the State Auditor's Office, will be in charge as Superintendent. If the National is kept up to its former standard of excellence, and we know it will be, then nothing better can be wished by the most fastidious epicure.

CUMULATIVE SUFFRAGE.—As the question of so amending the charter of this city as to adopt the system of cumulative suffrage has been agitated for the past two weeks, we make the suggestion that it would be well for those who are favorable to the amendment to hold a meeting and advise upon the propriety of making the necessary application to the present General Assembly. The advantage of this measure to the tax payers of a city, governed by a non-property holding and irresponsible majority, is too patent for discussion here. We make the suggestion as to the meeting in order that prompt steps, looking towards a concert of action among the friends of the movement, may be at once taken. We have no hesitation in asserting that a memorial, signed by the best and most influential citizens, could be gotten up, praying the passage of such a bill.

NOT YET IN HARMONY.—Some mischievous wag circulated the report on yesterday that our fat and good natured friend, Dave Lewis, had run away with a young lady and married her last night at the Yarbrough House. As might be imagined, said report created some wailing and lamenting among several damsels who had set their hearts on Dave. Well it might, as he is the Prince of good fellows, and strictly a family man. We row quiet and all by saying that David Lewis and lady, registered at the Yarbrough, is not our Dave, but another man. Our D. L. will not open his Spring campaign before the 15th of March, his usual time.

BURNED.—We regretted very much to hear that the wife of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. W. J. Edwards, met with a severe accident yesterday afternoon. While sitting before the fire she was suddenly seized with a spasm and fell into it. Before she could be rescued her right hand was severely burned, while the left wrist, face and portions of the body were badly scorched. Doctor James McKee was called in and attended to the injuries of the unfortunate lady. We trust she may soon recover.

N. C. STATE FAIR.—The regular monthly meeting of the Executive Committee will be held at the Yarbrough House on Thursday 2nd proximo at 11 o'clock. Each member of the Committee will be expected to be present, as much important business will come before the meeting.

Now, gentlemen, work must be your watch-word. The whole State has become interested in this enterprise. If you will but do your part we will no longer be the butt and ridicule of other States.

ELECTION.—Last evening at a meeting of Raleigh Lodge, No. 63, I. O. O.

F, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: L. G. Bagley, N. G.; John Nichols, V. G.; A. Magnin, Recording Secretary; D. S. Hudgins, Financial Secretary; Thomas Badger, Treasurer. Representative to the Grand Lodge, W. H. Hicks. Messrs. Thomas Badger, D. S. Hudgins and W. H. Hicks were elected committee on the Widows' and Orphans Fund.

ARRIVAL OF CONVICTS.—Wm. R.

Ashworth, Esq., Sheriff of Randolph county, brought to the city yesterday three recruits for the penitentiary, convicted at the last term of Randolph county Superior Court for robbing the safe of the Clerk of the Court, B. B.
Bulla, and sentenced as follows: Calvin Robbins and his wife for seven years, and Sallie Smith for five years. They were all colored.

RESULTED FATALITY.—Fab Dunn, col., died on Sunday morning from the effects of a stab inflicted upon him some weeks ago near Roleville, in this county, by one Wilson Bridges, col.

Bridges was arrested at the time of the occurrence and is still in jail. This swells the number of cases of homicides to come before the next term of the court to five.

"ON TO WASHINGTON."—W. B. Glenn, Esq., of Yadkin county, left the city yesterday morning for Washington city, as the messenger to carry the electoral vote of North Carolina for President and Vice President of the United States, preparatory to the meeting of the Electoral College on the 1st Wednesday of January next.

CITY MARKET.—Butter 30 to 35 cents per pound; eggs 30 to 35 cents per dozen; chickens 15 to 30 cents apiece; turkeys $2.25 to $3 per pair; ducks 70 to 80 cents per pair; Irish potatoes 75 cents per bushel, sweet 70, to 75; cabbage 25 cents per head; turnips 50 to 60 cents per bushel; pea nuts $2 per bushel.

PERSONALS.—Among the arrivals in the city yesterday at the Yarbrough were D. P. Hecton, U. S. A.; Dr. Pride Jones, Hillsboro; Col. W. L. Saunders, Wilmington; B. Fuller, Fayetteville and Messrs. T. C. Hicks, R. W. Lassiter, and T. L. Hargrove of Oxford.

Rescue at Sea—Ice Blockade—Publication of Another Statement by the Louisiana Committee, &c.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Clear and pleasant. The steamship regulator, from Wilmington, has on board the Captain and crew of schooner Hannah Little, of Philadelphia, rescued at sea on the 27th. The latter being a complete wreck and the men having had been lashed to the wreck twenty-six hours.

The East and North rivers are badly blocked with ice. A Memphis dispatch says that the loss by the ice gorge will not exceed a half million.

The Louisiana Committee published this morning a long letter denying the statements of Senator Kellogg in his bill of complaint filed in United States Circuit Court, and say that his object in wishing to get possession of the returns, when he charged fraud upon the returning officer, was to suppress or tamely them in order to make it appear that he had been elected Governor.

Judge Lochrane going to Georgia—

Favorable Progress of Negotiations for the Completion of the Macon and Brunswick Railroad.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Judge Lochrane is on his way to Georgia.

Reports are favorable to the progress of negotiations for the completion of Macon and Brunswick Railroad. The plan, loosely stated, is that Georgia shall guarantee the bonds, when their holders will finish and equip the road and pay its floating debt. The German bondholders have indicated a willingness to accept the proposition. The hitch seems to be with certain American holders of mixed Georgia securities, who wish to float all into a tangible value upon the backs of the Brunswick bonds.

STRIKING DOWN THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS.

Judge Durell, the Federal Jefferson in Louisiana, not only sets aside elections, displace Governors, turns out Legislatures and abolishes State Governments by the dash of his pen, but by the same agency he re-establishes a new Government of his own partisans, and procures an order from the President of the United States sustaining his action and commanding obedience and submission to the bogus authorities.

It is difficult to mention any vital principle of free Government which has not been violated by Durell and his conspirators in the Louisiana infamy. During this war upon the people's rights, the freedom of the press has not escaped. A base, unwarranted, cowardly assault has been made upon its liberties by the recent suppression of the New Orleans Times.

This paper had criticized with just severity and much ability the usurpation of Durell, Pinckney and company, and by its manly and patriotic course it brought down upon its head the condemnation and vengeance of the Rump Government. The fiat was issued—the order was obeyed—and the Times fell—a victim of Radical hate and Radical persecution!

We know the plea is set up by Durell and his friends, that the paper was thrown into bankruptcy on account of a debt of fifteen hundred dollars—but this is a mere pretence and its falsity becomes apparent when it is known that three times that amount was tendered to the person who commenced the proceeding. Even if the sum due by the Times had not been tendered, the public would have been slow to believe that a bona fide creditor of a newspaper would have crippled the means upon which he relied for repayment and struck down the only source of profit of his debtor, if he was influenced solely by the desire to recover his debt.

Political, not pecuniary, motives impelled the action which resulted in the silencing of the voice of one of the leading newspapers of Louisiana, at this critical juncture in political affairs.

This indignity, this high-handed outrage, this unwarranted usurpation, this unexampled licentiousness of power, illustrate the political demoralization of the age and the alarming stride the country is making toward a relentless and unmasked despotism!

In the sight of day, in the moon-tide light of the nineteenth century, before the eyes of the nation, in the face of the whole world, the freedom of the press is stricken down by one of the United States of America, by a Federal Judge, backed by the bayonets of Federal soldiery and sustained by the arm of the National Executive!

And yet this is called the land of free institutions—of freedom of thought, of speech and of the press! And yet this is America—the birth place of Liberty and the cradle of Independence! And yet this is the great American Republic! the asylum for the oppressed of every clime and of every creed!

"Oh Liberty! how many crimes are committed in thy name!"

THE ROLE OF LITTLEFIELD IN ALABAMA.

It is apparent, from the recent action of the Radicals in the Alabama Legislature, that schemes of plunder and speculation have been set on foot in that State, which, if successful, will prove a rich harvest for the corrupt plotters.

The Radical Legislature, which holds its separate sessions in the Court House, in Montgomery, in violation of the agreement suggested by Attorney General Williams, recently passed an act authorizing the issue of bonds to the amount of two millions of dollars, and an agent by the name of Mitchell, who was appointed to negotiate the same, is now in the market with this bogus paper, endeavoring to palm it off upon the commercial world as if it were issued by a legal, authorized body.

But the State press has warned the public that these bonds are not legally issued—that the Legislature issuing them was not the lawful Legislature of Alabama, and that the people of the State, in advance, protest that they will not be paid, and are utterly worthless.

North Carolina has been plundered by the conduct of such wretches as are now figuring in the Rump Legislature of Alabama, until there is nothing left to steal, according to the statement of a leading Radical who left the State on that account.

Bonds were issued from time to time by the Radical Legislature of North Carolina in 1869 and 1870 until they reached the amount of nearly twenty millions of dollars. Many of these were negotiated by the Littlefield-Swenson ring, who put the money in their own pockets without accounting to the State—thus breaking down the credit of North Carolina and fleeing the public to enrich themselves.

GEN. JAMES H. LANE.

The Richmond papers contradict the rumor which has been published by some of our State exchanges that Gen. James H. Lane, of Lane's famous North Carolina Brigade, had been engaged to preside over the Hillsboro Military Academy, now owned by Col. Paul Cameron and which has been recently repaired and fitted up by him for a military and classical school.

Gen. Lane is now Professor of Natural Philosophy, Chemistry and Military Tactics in the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College, at Blacksburg.

Although a Virginian by birth, Gen. Lane is closely identified with North Carolina which until recently was the home of his adoption. He was associated with Gen. Hill in conducting the Charlotte Military Institute, at the time of breaking out of hostilities between the North and the South, and was made Major of the 1st, or Bethel Regiment of volunteers. Gen. Hill being made Colonel and C. C. Lee Lieutenant Colonel. The latter was killed while at the head of another Regiment.

Gen. Lane was afterwards Colonel of the 63rd Regiment of State Troops, of Branch's Brigade, and after the death of Gen. Branch was appointed to succeed that distinguished officer. Gen. Lane performed gallant service during the war—was wounded several times, and was highly esteemed for his bravery, skill, modesty and moral character.

After the close of the war he returned to the home of his choice, North Carolina, and established a school in Cabarrus County.

A more lucrative situation being offered him in Virginia, he accepted the position, and we have not heard of him since until we saw his name in connection with the superintendence of the Hillsboro Academy.

We regret that Gen. Lane has declined the position tendered him at Hillsboro, as such an accomplished and patriotic gentleman would be a valuable accession to any State.

THE DUTY OF THE PRESS.

The public press is a great power in the land. It is potent for good or evil. Properly directed, it is capable of accomplishing incalculable good for mankind. Under evil influences, it is calculated to work a vast amount of mischief.

It is the duty of the press to avoid licentiousness of speech—to elevate and instruct and refine.

The Northern pictorial of a certain class are exercising a highly pernicious influence on the morals of that community that may be cursed with their circulation. Such journals should be banished from society and shunned with the same aversion as a pestilence.

Step by step the political journalism of the land is descending from its high estate and bringing reproach and disgrace upon a noble profession. Instead of that high tone, dignity, courtesy and chivalrous honor which should characterize gentlemen in every walk and circle of life, we find that many newspapers that are considered respectable, delight in feeding upon the private reputations of their personal and political opponents and invading the sanctity of the domestic hearthstone to open to the gaze of the public, the wounds that should be kept veiled forever in secrecy.

It is certainly a sad commentary upon the degeneracy of the times when the public taste has become so depraved that it finds refreshment and gratification in reading columns of vituperation and personal invective—usually the emanation of a wicked and corrupt heart.

No character is too pure, no object too high, no conduct too noble, to escape calumny and slander. And when the press lends its voice and influence to such unholly impious work, it becomes recreant in its high mission and is prostituted in an unrighteous cause.

THE HERALD'S INCONSISTENCY.

We alluded a few days since to the position of the New York Herald, that the Credit Mobilier was a private affair with which Congress had nothing to do, and the effort to investigate the charges of bribery and corruption alleged against certain Congressmen in connection therewith was impertinent and unjust. According to the Herald, Congress had no authority to pry into the individual transactions of its members, and therefore the appointment of a Committee of investigation to enquire into the truthfulness of the charges alleged by McComb against those who held stock in the Credit Mobilier was absurd and officious.

But as developments of a most damaging character have been brought out by the Committee, and as it has been well established that leading Radical Congressmen, who were the most active supporters of the Pacific Railroad schemes, have received large dividends from the Credit Mobilier stock, the Herald pronounces the affair the most stupendous swindle on record, and now advocates the most searching investigation of the conduct of the implicated Congressmen.

A daughter of one of the Rothschilds is about to break over the custom of that family in marrying among the cousins, and has given her hand and heart to a Christian and a poor man at that. He is the Hon. Mr. York, a son of the Earl of Hardwicke. Each will remain steadfast in their own faith.

OUR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

DAY AFTER CHRISTMAS, 1872. WASHINGTON, D. C.

Dear News:—Being rather late to greet you with a merry Christmas, permit me to wish you a happy New Year and a stomach well lined with chicken, mince pie, etc., especially the mince pie, on the initial day of the New Year, which I hope may be a specimen brick of the succeeding 364.

FOND OF HOLIDAYS.

This City is peculiar in one respect; it is decidedly cosmopolitan so far as observing holidays is concerned. The "gov." clerks celebrate with equal spirit the New England holiday—thanksgiving, or that of New York—New Year's day, or the one most observed in the Quaker City—Christmas—or Washington's birth day or the 4th of July, and grumble that the Crescent City jollification day—Mardi Gras—is not a national holiday. As celebrators of festive days are most successful, and General Grant leads all the rest. If Grant would only give all the government employees a holiday whenever he takes one he would become very popular here.

POVERTY AND WRETCHEDNESS.

Stalks hand in hand throughout this district. Thanks to the malice of Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, the poor laborers and others here are deprived of pay due them for work until after January 6th. These people, white and black, have not been paid for four months and are in great distress. In order to relieve this misery, Alex. R. Shepherd applied to Henry D. Cooke, of the firm of Jay Cooke & Co., and Governor of this District, for a loan of $800,000 for 12 days so as to pay off the almost starving poor, so that they might pay their grocers and bakers bills and have a tiny bit of Christmas for their little ones. That Tom might get a pair of shoes to keep out the snow and Maggie a shawl to shield her from the keen wintry blasts, and that a turkey might be bought for the Christmas dinner, and that good Santa Claus might not seem to have forgotten the weedy and their stockings as he went his round, and that a ray of sunshine should penetrate the humble dwellings of the poor on blessed Christmas day, this much did the rough, hard Alex. Shepherd, and was told by the pious Henry D. Cooke that he had not the money himself but a friend of his had, and he was an unscrupulous dog, and of course it would cost considerable. When Shepherd heard the price, he bounded from his chair and indulged in figures of speech more forcible than elegant, and so ended the last hope of the poor for a little mite of Christmas. Had Shakespeare lived in the days of Grant instead of Elizabeth, he would have drawn the character of Cooke, based on these transactions, in preference to that of Shylock as a genuine first-class dollar and cent grabber, unrelieved by the spirit of revenge that enters into the character of the Jew of Venice. The kind efforts of the unpoetical Shepherd stand out in marked contrast to that of the mean, sleek Senator Edmunds and the pious grasping Governor Cooke. Both of these shining lights, no doubt, enjoyed their Christmas dinners and slept soundly last night without a thought or vision of the pale, pinched faces and sad wistful eyes of those who had looked so hopefully forward to the holiday time, but found them the saddest and dreariest of the year. So we go.

THE CREDIT MOBILIER EXPOSE.

From all that has been gleaned of the doings of the Credit Mobilier committee in their secret investigation, enough is known to warrant the assertion that those members of Congress whose names were mentioned in connection with this business will have a very difficult matter in clearing their skirts of the taint which will reflect every one of them. Soon as Congress assembles an effort will be made to do away with the present star chamber manner of conducting the investigation, and throw open the doors to the public; then every congressional tub will stand on its own bottom, and the innocent will not, as at present, be confounded with the guilty. Every honest member owes it to his reputation to call for open doors and a strong light on the subject. The Union Pacific Railroad Company claim that the Credit Mobilier swindled it out of $18,000,000 in the construction of their Railroad, by charging more than double the worth of the work. Should the Company bring suit, as threatened, against the Credit Mobilier, there would be the greatest exposure of business and legislative fraud ever made. The friends of Ames and McComb, the leaders in this struggle, have been overlooking the records of the War Department to discover if the charge that McComb was a defaulting contractor during the war is true.

LOUISIANA.

The address of the Louisiana Committee issued from here, giving a plain straight forward history of the troubles in that State, has annoyed the Radicals, and a counter statement is in preparation. The news received here that the address has moved the people of various sections to call public meetings in disapproval of the course pursued by the administration is not at all relished by the White House coterie, and everything will be done to break the force of any such expression of public sentiment.

LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

The newspaper correspondents here, without regard to political bias, do not like the suppression of the New Orleans Times. The administration journals in this City try to draw it mild by calling it a mere business affair, but it is too thin. The Chronicle in a sharp tone says that "it is about time to squelch the story that the suppression of the New Orleans Times was a piece of despotism of Judge Durell's Court." The story unfortunately is too true, and, as Brother Harlan knows, truth squelched to earth won't stay squelched.

THE ALABAMA TROUBLES.

The Attorney General declares that the Court H. use (Radical) Legislature, which still keeps up its organization after agreeing to the compromise suggested by him, will not be recognized by the administration. The Rads on finding that they only carried the Lower House tried to come the little game so successfully played in Louisiana, but they have no bro-in-law of the administration in Alabama, as in Louisiana, who would like to be United States Senator, they receive no words of comfort from Grant. Democratic votes, it is claimed, will re-elect Senator Spencer in accordance with an agreement that for his continuance as Senator he would assist in ridding the State of carpet-bag rule which only partially succeeded, the Democrats holding the Upper House. The end in this case justified the means.

CIVIL SERVICE RULES.

The appointment of Gen. McArthur as Postmaster of Chicago is a downright violation of the civil service rules. Has Grant tried of them, or fallen back before the politicians, or merely laid them aside for his own convenience and pleasure? This is the last conundrum

A man in Keokuk recently started an office furnished with a pair of blacksmith's bellows for the inflating of rubber blisters—ladies go there to be blown up.

There is a graceful Dutch proverb that a house full of daughters is like a cellar full of sour beer.

Iowa pays $2 per day to women while they are working out their road tax.

A nice young girl in Georgia runs the plow to maintain her aged parents.

Hoboken, Mass., has female clerks and is flush of young men boarders.

The fashionable ladies of New York indulge in slang.

STATE NEWS.

Wife being some times happens in Wilmington.

The horse-malady has entirely disappeared from Statesville.

Several papers complain of the lack of meat and fish in their market.

State exchanges from all sections speak of the severity of the weather.

Friday Wilmington witnessed a snow when the sun was shining brightly.

The Newbern Steam Fire Company are to have a grand ball this (Tuesday) evening.

A grand masquerade and fancy dress ball will be given in Wilmington this (Tuesday) evening.

State news is decidedly scarce on account of Western exchanges not coming yesterday.

Several rogues were caught plundering the recent fire in Wilmington and taken to the work house.

NEWBERN has a lodge of Knights of the name of "Athenia." It has 28 charter members.

WILMINGTON authorities would not allow guns and pistols to be fired within the city limits during the holidays.

GEORGE W. PRICE, Jr., colored, is to deliver a lecture before the pupils of the M. E. Sunday Schools of Wilmington on Monday next.

Drs. FREEMAN and Baldwin lost $2,000 to $2,500 by the fire Thursday night in Wilmington. They lost their instruments and a quantity of gold foil.

The fire among the smouldering ruins of the recent conflagration in Wilmington, broke out on Friday, and it took the Fire Department some time to suppress the flames.

On account of the severity of the weather and the indisposition of the Mayor, Hon. A. M. Waddell, the public ceremonies of the celebration of St. John's Day, (Friday) by the masonic fraternity of Wilmington, were postponed. The ceremony came off and was brilliant.

Death of Andrew "Swamp" County.

The following is a list of the persons who were killed in the late fire in Wilmington, N. C.

At Eureka, N. C., about eight miles from Wilmington, there was a considerable gathering of the clans of the county on Thursday. Steve Lowery, agent, but Andrew A. Strong was with a number of his friends. At 10 o'clock in the day, while a number of negroes were in a store at the corner of the street, a fire broke out, and the store was burned down.

The Baltimore Advertising Agency of Griffin & Hoffman, seemed a success at the start. Established in 1867, it has waxed stronger with each year of its existence, until it has become one of the solid institutions of the city and acquired a national reputation for enterprise and reliability.—Sun.

Mr. J. M. Bell, the well-known English reader, has definitely agreed to come to America; and he will give a series of his much commended entertainments in Boston, New York and other cities, beginning late in January, or early in February of the coming year.

Wedding cards in Denver consist of the jack of diamonds and the queen of hearts, with the names of the contracting parties thereon; if the bride's mother is living, the ten of clubs is enclosed.

A woman sues the city of Leavenworth, Kansas, for $10,000 because her husband was locked up in the calaboose by a crazy man who killed him before morning.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Orange county exports hoop poles to the West Indies.

The navigation of the James River and Kanawha Canal is closed by ice.

Augusta county is troubled with a gang of professional horse thieves.

Mr. R. G. Orr, of Marion, fell dead in the streets of that place on Monday of last week.

A man by the name of Samuel Vaiden, recently died suddenly in a bar room in Manchester.

Mr. W. B. Shupe, of Augusta, recently committed suicide. Cause, business complications.

Mr. Charles Hinton, while skating on the river at Petersburg, on Saturday, broke his arm by a fall.

A colored woman came near being roasted alive in Richmond the other day by her bed clothes taking fire.

The arrival of a hog weighing 835 pounds, from Tennessee excited the good people of Petersburg a day or two ago.

The Lee memorial feast, held in Lexington last week, was quite a success, yielding a net revenue over expenses of $500.

A little daughter of Mr. Etchison, a machinist of Alexandria, was burned to death by the explosion of a lamp Wednesday.

A colored man named Albert Griggs was found frozen to death near Petersburg a few days ago. Too much whiskey was the cause.

Patents have been issued to the following Richmond men: W. J. Cussen, machine for cutting fabrics; Mrs. Hagarty, a sad iron heater, for applying rubber nut to boots.

Mr. James H. Fewell, died in Marion, on Sunday last from the effects of wounds received on the head some two weeks since, at the hands of a negro named Charles Saunders.

Mr. W. S. McCane brings suit against the City of Petersburg for injuries sustained by being thrown from his wagon. The accident is alleged to have been caused by the bad condition of the street.

The plea of insanity in criminal cases is likely to fare hard in Illinois. It does not matter much to the criminal, however, as, at the present day, to use a homely phrase, the lawyers know many tricks that are worth two of that. Insanity may serve on occasion, but is not the reliance it was in olden times.

Illinois is, therefore, somewhat late in dealing with the subject, but her proposed law is an excellent one. If jury acquits a man of murder as insane, he is certainly a sufficiently dangerous lunatic to be placed in safe keeping. A bill now before the Legislature of Illinois provides that whenever an indicted person is found not guilty by reason of his temporary insanity the Court shall send him to a lunatic asylum for a term of years proportionate to his crime.
